European Athletics President's Welcome Message

Statistics show how our sport continues to thrive

I am very pleased to welcome everyone to the 36th edition of the European Athletics Indoor Championships here in Torun. Poland has been a wonderful host for many European Athletics events, and we will also return here at the end of May for the European Team Championships Super League which will be held in the Silesian city of Chorzow, but this is actually only the second time that this particular event has been held in this nation.

The last time, the only other previous occasion, was back in 1975 when Katowice was the host. On that occasion, we had 24 Member Federations represented and 270 athletes competed.

It is a measure of how our sport has grown since then, even taking into account the changes in the political landscape and the immense impact of the coronavirus pandemic, that we at European Athletics anticipate that numbers will be considerably higher this year than those of 46 years ago. The European Athletics Indoor Championships are the second most important event in our competition portfolio, one which traditionally attracts huge attention from the global sports loving public, and its prestige has been confirmed by the fact many of Europe's top athletes have committed to competing here.

Consequently, as I outlined in my policy paper 'Leading European Athletics Forward in Challenging Times' at our e-Convention in October last year, we must do our utmost to deliver European Athletics events in 2021 – starting with this championship – in a bid to return to some semblance of normality after a year which saw the international athletics calendar severely disrupted.

We must provide a stage on which our continent's leading athletes can display their talent and show to all that athletics remains a vibrant and thriving sport.

I believe Torun 2021 will be an attractive and entertaining spectacle, and I have full confidence that everyone involved will deliver an event that will be memorable for all the best reasons, despite the fact that there will inevitably have to be concessions to health and sanitary protocols as the safety of athletes is our primary concern above all else.

Everyone at European Athletics, including myself, are hugely gratified that the Polish federation – Polski Związek Lekkiej Atletyki – the Local Organising Committee and the public authorities have shared our vision and collectively worked so hard to stage what will be the most important athletics event in the world during the first half of this year.

Local Organising Committee's Welcome Message

European Indoor Athletics Championships Toruń 2021 will undoubtedly take place in exceptional circumstances. For a year now, the whole world has been fighting a difficult battle with a pandemic that has had an unprecedented impact on the social, economic, cultural and sporting situation of people in every corner of our globe. However, the desire to return to normalcy and longing for a life free from fear and limitations make humanity strive with determination to overcome the crisis giving hope for a better future.

In this difficult time Toruń, despite the restrictions related to the pandemic, has not stopped in its efforts to organize the most important indoor athletics event in Europe. We have prepared it in accordance with the world's best sporting standards, while maintaining the highest standards of sanitation. For years, Toruń has been under the lasting influence of the attractiveness of all athletics disciplines, so the athletes and trainers who will come to Toruń for this year's Championships will certainly feel the power of Toruń's favor and hospitality.

We treat the European Indoor Athletics Championships Toruń 2021 as a great athletics feast. Exemplary cooperation of the Council of the European Athletics with the city of Toruń and the Polish Athletics Federation and the Kujawsko-Pomorskie Athletics Association is a guarantee of the organization of the European Championships at the highest level. On behalf of the Organizing Committee I would like to thank everyone who supported this desirable and necessary cooperation.

We are counting on the high level of sports rivalry and setting many records. They will remain in the history of world sport forever as a manifestation of the determination of the European athletics community, which even in times of an ongoing pandemic is able to undertake the organization of such an important and prestigious sporting event. In Toruń, we accept this attitude with admiration and appreciation.
